

The Daily Universe

all in news tips to 378-3630; other calls 378-2957

Brigham Young University

Provo, Utah

Vol. 36 No. 38

Wednesday, October 27, 1982

Times Watt advocates party support at rally

By STEVE EATON
Senior Reporter

Watt, secretary of the interior, told a crowd of 300 at a Republican rally in Provo that now is the time for a change in leadership of a "government filled with who have mortgaged our future."

Controversial speaker was downplaying politics for the moment, Republican for the 3rd congressional seat, who Watt used to bring about the "Reagan revolution" will "restore America to greatness."

Watt said the Reagan administration has been making increased use of natural resources by funds that had been unavailable for development this year alone we will lease more with stiffer environmental safeguards than our administration leased its entire four years ago.

Watt said that because of "bad political management" in the way the resources of America aged is necessary and that change will not be controversial.

Watt said the federal deficit is the fault of the Reagan budget would be balanced if we did to pay interest on the liberal debts," he said.

Watt said he thought Nielson has the "commitment and determination" to work towards the things Reagan is seeking.

"Your state is flooded with outsiders who come to tell you how to vote," Watt said. "I'm asking you to give the president a chance to restore America to its greatness."

JAMES WATT

energy needs for thousands of years," Watt said.

Watt said the "heavy hand of government threatens to deny Americans political and spiritual liberty."

"We must ratify the Reagan revolution so that we might restore America to greatness," Watt said. "and that we might protect and that we might defend those two streams of political liberty and spiritual freedom that formed this country called America."

Watt said he thought Nielson has the "commitment and determination" to work towards the things Reagan is seeking.

"Your state is flooded with outsiders who come to tell you how to vote," Watt said. "I'm asking you to give the president a chance to restore America to its greatness."

Police look for woman after return of Tylenol

AGO (AP) — Authorities on Tuesday searched a woman who turned up in an eighth bottle of Extra-Strength Tylenol and falsehoods about herself as a juve's wife.

On Police Lt. Terry Mee said the woman in a bottle of Extra-Strength Tylenol in two weeks after seven people died from ane-filled Tylenol capsules. He said the identified herself as the wife of an associate County Circuit Court judge.

He said she intended to turn it in right after her, but that she just let it go," said Mee.

When FBI agents and members of the seven deaths intervened, she learned she was not in who returned the contaminated bottle to police, Mee said.

He said the woman who turned in the bottle purchased at a Frank's Finer Foods in the same outlet from which one of the seven deaths occurred, he said. A drugstore in the city has four stores in the Chicago area.

He said Monday night that the eighth died from a Frank's Finer Foods in the city, but Mee said Tuesday the woman "died" she bought it in Winfield some time in the city.

We are speculating she bought it one to two weeks earlier.

He said Winfield police mailed the bottle to an in Maple Plain, Minn., set up by Consumers Products Co., manufacturer of the best-selling Tylenol. The bottle was found to contain cyanide.

Officials turned it over to the FBI. The city sent the container to its crime lab in the city, where laser technology will be employed to lift fingerprints, officials said.

Copycat crimes scare residents

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — After a third case of product tampering in 2½ weeks, storekeepers in Colorado River town say customers are opening boxes and checking seals on just about everything.

The telephone at the county health department rings constantly these days. Halloween may be out the window. And a druggist says residents "are scared, really scared."

Rat poison was found in Anacin capsules Monday. The day before, a tranquilizer pill was found in a frog's eye. Two weeks before that, a hospital patient suffered permanent blindness when he used a bottle of acid-laced Visine eye drops.

"Three in two weeks — I guess the word 'weird' isn't strong enough," said Gary Leonard, the chief of police in this town on the western slope of the Rocky Mountains.

Leonard says his department has developed no leads and no suspects. Although "copycat" product tampering incidents have occurred nationwide following seven deaths from poisoned Extra-Strength Tylenol in Chicago, Leonard says it is a mystery why someone happened in this community of 30,000 people.

"People are calling us about everything from water smelling like gasoline to canned peaches that taste funny," Dr. Kenneth Lampert, director of the Mesa County Health Department, said Tuesday.

Consumer price drop positive indication, government claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer prices, paced by tumbling mortgage rates, inched ahead at an annual rate of 2.1 percent in September, the smallest increase since spring, the government said Tuesday.

President Reagan hailed the report as a sign his administration was "cleaning away the economic wreckage" of the past, but private analysts said the weak economy was responsible.

Market 1976 rate

The report on the Labor Department's Consumer Price Index said inflation was running at an annual rate of 4.8 percent in the first nine months of the year. That matched the level for all of 1976 and raised the possibility that inflation for all of this year would come in at its best pace in a decade.

Meanwhile, the Treasury Department was expected to announce new figures Tuesday showing the deficit for the just-ended 1982 fiscal year reached a record of about $110 billion. That would top the previous red-link record of $66.4 billion in 1976.

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

Market 1976 rate

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Reagan, campaigning for GOP congressional candidates, quickly seized on the inflation report as good news for the economy.

He told a rally in Raleigh, N.C., that inflation is "back to where it was in January of 1977" with Gerald Ford left office."

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., contended the figures were "nothing to brag about."

He said they resulted from the worst recession since the 1930s and added: "Of course prices are not rising as fast as they were — no one is buying anything."

Good news

Israel survives vote; Iran urges ouster, U.S. avoids walkout

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — A showdown on an Iranian challenge to Israel's credentials in the General Assembly was avoided on Tuesday when the world body adopted a Finnish amendment to adjourn debate on the issue.

The vote was 74-9 with 31 abstentions.

Iran bolted unexpectedly from an Islamic-bloc compromise Monday in demanding the vote. The move sought to protect Israel's seating by promising to make up any funds lost if the Jewish state were ousted, and the United States quit the assembly protest as it threatened to do.

Israeli Ambassador Yehuda Z. Blum had said it was "most unlikely"

the measure would succeed, declaring that "any attempt to tamper with Israel's credentials will mortally damage this organization."

U.S. Ambassador Jeane J. Kirkpatrick charged Iran was being "driven by the dynamics of extremism and was acting 'outside the discipline of the general assembly'."

For the ouster to succeed, two-thirds of the 156 accredited assembly members would have to approve it.

The move to oust Israel was rejected after Iran joined Arab and other Islamic countries Monday in signing a letter that expressed collective reservation about Israel's seating, but did not seek a vote.

Thousands executed, amnesty group says

LONDON (AP) — Thousands of people, especially in Central America, were killed last year on the orders of their governments, Amnesty International said in its annual report Wednesday.

It urged international action against political killings.

"Governments must not be allowed to evade responsibility when they choose to obliterate suspected opponents," the London-based human rights movement said in the 367-page review of political imprisonment, torture and executions in 121 nations during 1981.

The Nobel Peace Prize-winning organization stuck to its tradition of refusing to make comparisons or identify the world's "worst offenders" against human rights.

The report ranged from cataloging "continuing repression against all forms of dissent" in the Soviet Union to expressing concern at a record 924 people on death row in the United States.

It cites El Salvador, Guatemala and Syria for civilian killings by troops or officially approved "death squads."

Amnesty said Iran, where Islamic conservatives dominate, was among the countries that, including children, to death by firing squad during the second half of 1981, topped the 34 nations where death sentences imposed by courts were carried out.

The organization, which opposes capital punishment, said 3,278 persons were known to have been executed during the year — nearly triple the number in 1980.

These officially announced figures included 2,616 people in Iran and 96 in white-minority South Africa.

The report was released as the U.S. Senate voted to impose economic sanctions on South Africa.

Valid until Nov. 3, 1982

THE PHOTO SHOP

$1.00 off

SAVE A BUCK!

Bring in this coupon for $1.00 off on our color print processing price on C-110-24, C-135-24, C-126-24 exposures.

valid until Nov. 3, 1982

OLYMPUS

OM10FC
chrome body

with 50 mm f. 8 lens

OFT (off the film)™

Automation
Plus manual control $209.95
- 30.00 Olympic rebate

$179.95

* free strap with camera

Vivitar 3200
Inexpensive foolproof flash

ASA 100/ft. guide no. 60
Fully "dedicated" to interface with your automatic SLR, activates viewfinder information, sets shutter speed on most models
"Beep, beep" tells you flash is ready; "Beeeeep" tells you had a perfect exposure Automatic range to 30 feet

SAVE $10 $47.00

byu bookstore

Universe photo by George Frey

Y student injured in auto collision

Two automobiles collided late Tuesday night near the 1100 N. 900 E. exit of the Law School parking lot. Victim Robin Clark, senior in Early Childhood Education, was taken to Utah Valley Hospital where she was treated for minor head cuts and bruises, said Provo Police Officer Curtis Clark. Robin was a passenger in a Datsun 210 driven by her husband Donald Clark, a BYU senior in electrical engineering. Martin Sherran, was the driver of the second car, a Mazda pick-up truck. According to Provo Police Officer King, neither driver was injured. Officer King estimated the damage to Clark's Datsun at $3,000 and damage to the Sherran Mazda at $1200.

$6,000 funding proposal to be discussed by council

A $6,000 funding proposal made by the ASBYU Student Research Funding Committee will be the major item of discussion at today's executive committee meeting, said Staciee Hosford, ASBYU Public Relations Director.

The $6,000 proposal was made by Roger Malmrose, ASBYU Academics vice president, during last week's executive council meeting, said Hosford. The proposal was briefly discussed before being postponed until tonight.

$15,000 given

"Fifteen thousand dollars has already been given out this semester to 109 students, giving each student approximately $178. The remaining $3,000 will then be given to students next semester," said Joseph D. Smith, chairman of the student research committee. "The additional $6,000 is to give students next semester the same consideration this semester's students received," he said.

Fund allocation

In the past, the student research fund has allocated to the between $15,000 and $25,000, by the executive council. These funds are used by students involved in special projects ranging from scientific experiments to theses and dissertations, Malmrose noted in a memo to the council.

Other proposals

Other funding proposals will also be considered during the meeting, including a funding proposal by the Student Health Advisory Committee, said Hosford. The council meeting will be at 7 p.m. in 258 ELWC.

Send Your Missionary A Halloween Surprise!

Send Him/Her

- * Halloween letter stickers
- * Maps
- * Flags
- * Aprons
- * Key Chains

All this and more at Missionary Emporium

Gallery 28
University Mall
224-6289

Weather

Utah Valley forecast: Scattered showers today, decreasing tonight. Partly cloudy Thursday. Highs 50-55; lows 25-30.

For the 24-hour period ending 6 p.m. Tuesday:

High temperature: 59
Low temperature: 43
One year ago: 70-33
Predicted wind direction: northward
Peak wind speed: 36 mph, 3:15 p.m. Tuesday High humidity: 95 percent
Low humidity: 49 percent
Precipitation: 0.38 inches
Month to date: 1.31 inches

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

STUDY ABROAD

APPLICATION DEADLINE

For January-June 1983, Friday October 29, 1982

VIENNA ■ LONDON

ORIENTATION SESSIONS

London: Every Tuesday, 4:10 p.m. in 274 MARB beginning Tuesday, October 26, 1982
Vienna: Orientation/Open House, 4:10 p.m. in 323 MARB beginning Tuesday, October 26, 1982

ALL ARE INVITED

Department of Study Abroad

202 HRCB 378-3308

We believe in "Tartan" plaid shirts $25.50 Scots Highlights used to make cross stripes of various design and color to distinguish clans and social rank within each clan.

Prov & Mail Open til 9

39 WEST

STOREKEEPERS
FOR GENTLEMEN
AND OTHER WOMEN
39 W. 200 N., PROVO
UNIVERSITY MALL

Hatch, a freshman from Provo majoring in design technology, is the only 15-year-old at BYU who finds advantages and disadvantages to getting such an early start in life. He said his schooling at home from his parents because they didn't like the school system, he

Universe photo by Molly Christie

For 15 year old, college has its disadvantages

By COLLEEN FOSTER

Staff Writer

Though getting an early start in life may have advantages, one 15-year-old full-time student at BYU said there are definitely problems with it.

Hatch, a freshman from Provo, said it is now 15 years old while going to college.

"There is nobody else my age on campus,"

he said.

It's pretty hard because people talk about dating I'm not even old enough to date," Hatch

he began attending BYU last spring, after his 15th birthday.

He got ahead in schooling because his parents in their home. "They didn't like what public schools were teaching," he said. They students weren't pushed enough — they were too "lax."

He, a design technology major with a special-computer, said he enjoys being at BYU, at times he has trouble fitting in. "My parents are all about 10 years older than me."

County hopefuls

Candidates voice views

By SUSAN IFAKHTIAN

Staff Writer

Delegates for Utah County offices met along with U.S. congressional hopefuls in a "Candidate Night" sponsored by the Utah County of Women Voters at the Provo High School on Tuesday night.

Eric Huish, an independent backed by the ratio party for the 3rd Congressional District, said he supports a modified tax system that would eliminate all but four possible deduchions, concerning campaign spending, he is of spending only what is taken in and out that Republican Howard Nelson has $62,000 on his campaign, which he said is more than a congressman's annual income.

son shot back that "of the $62,000 campaign is $2,000 to my family and the remaining $10,000 will be paid back before campaign is over."

son said a flat tax would simplify many

"My opponent has said that he would only have four or four deductions in, but every con-professor named newspaper editor

son B. Wads-

an assistant proof communica-

has been the editor of the

the official

for the Region of the National Photographers

ation, on Nine of NPPA than 500 memotjournalists in ons from Win-

Canada to St.

Utah, he is responsible for on photojour-related news in and will also winning photo-

from the region's

"clip contest."

region photo-

ers compete

each year for the month of

in several cate-

" he explained.

sworth most re-

resident of the Society of Profes-

— you a inner?

Check in assified for free

ovie tickets.

Respect Christ, students urged

By TODD F. MAYNES

Staff Writer

Jesus Christ should not be viewed as an older brother, Elder M. Burton, a member of the LDS First Quorum of Seventy, said in Tuesday's Devotional.

In the premortal spirit world Jesus was our elder brother," Elder Burton said, but we now should receive Christ as Lord, Savior, God and King, not as a brother.

"It is, in my opinion," he said, "wrong on earth after baptism to refer to him as 'our elder brother.' We ought to be more respectful and show our gratitude to him for the opportunity we have to become members of his royal family."

Elder Burton centered his talk around a recent conversation he had with a stewardess who said she was "born again," and had received Christ as her Savior. The stewardess added she was saved by grace and not by her own works.

Dracula topic of speech

Students at BYU will get the chance to sink their teeth into the myths of the real Count Dracula as Frederick H. Barth, a Transylvanian by birth, speaks Thursday at 10 a.m. in the University Theater ELWC.

Barth, the author of "A Transylvanian Legacy," will lecture on the real Dracula, as well as superstitions still believed in Transylvania.

According to the Transylvanian, the myth that Dracula comes from a woodpecker is still believed in Transylvania.

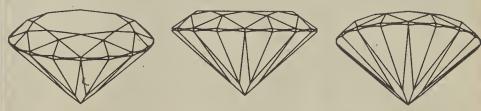

The carving shows Dracula sitting at a banquet table filled with his decapitated victims. "A stream of blood flows from his victims into a cup, out of which Dracula drinks," he said.

"I have observed that few people who profess to be Christians — even within The Church of Jesus Christ — really understand some of the most basic principles of the gospel," Elder Burton said.

Being "born again" requires a commitment.

inscape

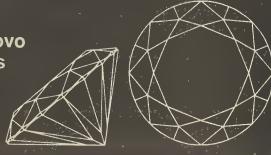

New issue and subscriptions available this week in the bookstore.

Antwerp world diamond centre at your fingertips

Diamonds Direct

11 East 300 North, Provo
American Savings Building
(801) 375-3080

BANYAN

BYU YEARBOOK

FREE SITTING

$7.95 value

Get your picture in the 1982-83 BANYAN-YEARBOOK absolutely FREE. This proof can be used toward the purchase of prints for resumes or gifts for family and friends.

HURRY! Offer is good only until November 30th.

REMEMBER — HOLIDAYS ARE APPROACHING FAST!

please bring coupon to

PHOTO STUDIO 116 ELWC

HALLOWEEN'S COMING...

SCARED TO DEATH
BECAUSE YOUR COSTUME
ISN'T READY YET?
LOOK NO FURTHER!!

CARNIVAL CONCESSIONS HAS OVER 300 DIFFERENT ITEMS FOR YOUR HALLOWEEN FUN!

MASKS: Over 50! E.T., Nixon, Reagan, Yeti, Fang Race, Warlock, Syngor, and More!

WIGS: Dracula, Long Hair, Witch, Bald Head & 9 Different Clown Wigs!

HATS: Witch, Derby, Top Hat, Propeller Beanie, Tramp, Cowboy, Fireman, Flashing Visor

MAKEUP: Grease Paint & Tube, Colored Hairspray, Makeup Brushes, 10 Professional Kits for Different Characters

COSTUME ACCESSORIES: Glasses (including Punk Rock), Shoes, Beards, Eyes, Teeth, Ears, Noses, Eyelashes

PARTY ACCESSORIES: Bats, Spiders, Skeletons, Streamers, Balloons, Rent Our Clown Costumes, Masks, Strobe & Spotlights, and Cobweb Machine!

LOWEST PRICES AROUND!

Professional Makeup Artist Will Be in the Store Oct. 29 and 30 to Demonstrate Techniques and Give Free Applications to Our Customers.

CARNIVAL CONCESSIONS
575 N. Main, Springville
489-7798
(Only Minutes From Provo)

Sports

BYU's Eric Krzmarzick drops to pass during the Cougars' 27-0 opening season victory over Nevada-Las Vegas. Krzmarzick's main drawback as a quarterback is a lack of playing time.

Second stringer has No. 1 ability

By M. JOE SMITH

Staff writer

Coaches like him well, reads defenses well, and is a good team leader, but there is one barrier standing between Eric Krzmarzick and a starting quarterback spot — Steve Young.

Krzmarzick, a 6-foot-5-inch, 195-pound junior quarterback from Fallbrook, Calif., has been a back-up quarterback for All-Americans Mark Wilson and Jim McMahon, and is currently playing behind Steve Young, the third-stringer.

According to head coach LaVell Edwards, Krzmarzick is good enough to be the starting quarterback. "He's good enough to be starting for us now, I've always believed in the one quarterback system, and right now we're going with Steve Young," he said.

Edwards said that if Young were to go down with an injury, he would have all the time in the world to let Krzmarzick to guide the offense. "Eric has a good concept of our offense, and because of the time he has spent in our system, we wouldn't have to alter our game plan at all," said Edwards.

Krzmarzick said he lost the starting nod to Young because of a lack of confidence in himself and because of problems with his throwing motion.

"For one year, our defensive coach Doug Sevill thought I would become the next Mark Wilson, but somewhere between the time when he left and when Ted Tolner, Sevill's replacement, came in, I had lost the confidence in myself and my game," Krzmarzick said.

Krzmarzick said that while he was losing confidence, Steve Young was gaining confidence and improving his game, and that was the reason why the coaches made the decision to go with Young as the starting quarterback.

Edwards said Krzmarzick is an intelligent drop-back quarterback who throws well and uses good judgment. Edwards added Eric had problems throwing the ball, but Mike Holmgren, the offensive coordinator, said Eric made a few adjustments in his throwing motion, and now he is throwing the ball well again once.

Krzmarzick said his quarterbacking style is much different than Young's. "Steve is more of a rollout passer who likes to use his great running ability. I like to drop back in the pocket and look for secondary help and backs to run out of the pocket. I'm not afraid to roll out and throw the ball only when I have to," Krzmarzick said.

During a junior varsity game when Krzmarzick was a freshman, he threw for more than 280 yards and three touchdowns. The opposing coach said Krzmarzick was the best freshman quarterback he ever faced.

Krzmarzick believes he still has a shot at beating Young out, but needs the opportunity to prove himself. "I'm not afraid to drop back and I have adjusted my throwing motion to where I am throwing the ball good again. I just hope I have the chance to show what I have in a game," he said.

Groudid's play wows WAC

DENVER (AP) — Everyone in Jack Murphy Stadium thought San Diego State cornerback Dave Groudid would put an errant Long Beach State pass in his own end zone last weekend.

Groudid, however, foiled them all. He tucked the ball under his arm and ran 100 yards for a touchdown as the Aztecs rolled up a 55-17 victory.

The Western Athletic Conference named the Ventura, Calif., senior its Defensive Player of the Week today.

Monday, Wyoming senior quarterback Craig

Johnson, who helped the Cowboys spoil Utah's WAC title hopes last weekend, was named the Offensive Player of the Week. He completed 18 of 20 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns in leading Wyoming to a 16-13 victory.

Other nominees for the defensive player honor were Air Force safety Don Simons, BYU tackle Eddie Elton, Colorado State defensive back Willie Searcy, New Mexico safety Huey Chancellor, Texas-E] Paso tackle Kevin Belcher, Utah linebacker Mark Bloch and Wyoming safety John Salley.

For the first time, read and understand Isaiah

A new translation from the Hebrew with Interpretative Key

This definitive work—a key to the events of the last days—belongs in the home of every Latter-day Saint

$9.95

The Apocalyptic Book of Isaiah

Avraham Gileadi

'A superb translation' R. K. Harrison, Wycliffe College, University of Toronto
 'Brilliant tour de force' David Noel Freedman, University of Michigan
 'A clear exposition of what Isaiah is all about' Hugh Nibley, Brigham Young University

AP top 20

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The Pitt Panthers replaced Washington as the No. 1 team in The Associated Press college football poll Monday, ending a six-week reign by the Huskies, who received more first-place votes, but missed the top spot by one.

Both teams remained unbeaten and untied and the move was a bit of poetic justice for Pitt, which was No. 1 in the preseason and first regular-season polls but dropped behind Washington after beating North Carolina and then slipped to third after defeating Florida State.

Pitt struggles

Pitt struggled offensively Saturday in turning back Syracuse 14-0. The Panthers received 21 of 58 first-place votes and 1,109 of a possible 1,160 points from a nation-wide panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

WSU slides

Washington, which did not score until the final 1:06 and defeated Texas Tech 10-3, received 28 first-place votes and 1,105 points. Georgia and Southern Methodist held onto the third and fourth positions, while Arkansas moved up from sixth to fifth and Nebraska slipped from fifth to sixth.

Georgia tops

Georgia, a 27-14 winner over Kentucky, received three first-place ballots and 1,010 points. SMU, which downed Texas 30-17 and knocked the Longhorns out of the Top Twenty, received two firsts and 976 points. The other four first-place votes went to Arkansas, which thumped Houston 38-3 and received 909 points. Nebraska, which rallied in the final period to edge Missouri 23-19, received 824 votes.

Arizona State idle

Arizona State, one of six unbeaten teams in the nation, was fifth and 783 points, while climbing from eighth to seventh.

Rounding out the Top Ten were Penn State, Alabama and North Carolina. Penn State rose from ninth to eighth with 763 points after trouncing West Virginia 24-0. Alabama fell from seventh to ninth with 740 points after a lackluster 21-3 decision over Cincinnati and North Carolina. Idaho last weekend, remained No. 10 with 642 points.

The Second Ten consists of UCLA, Southern California, LSU, Florida State, Clemson, Miami, Oklahoma, West Virginia, Auburn and Michigan. Last week it was UCLA, Southern Cal, West Virginia, LSU, Notre Dame, Miami, Florida State, Clemson, Texas and Oklahoma.

Auburn made it back to the Top Twenty after a three-week absence by trimming Mississippi State 35-17 and boosting its record to 6-1, while Michigan reappeared after a four-week layoff. The Big Ten then placed a team in the Top Twenty after missing last week for the first time since the AP poll began in 1936.

Intramural champions announced

Entries for badminton, tennis and doubles competition must be turned in to the Intramurals Office, 112 RB, by Thursday.

Officials in the Intramurals Office have also announced the winners of several recent intramural events.

Tennis

Champions in tennis doubles competition for men were: Mike Toolson and Ken Calder, 4A; Brad Fletcher and Ted Draney, 3A; and Greg Guggisberg and Rob Gleave, 2A.

Winners in the tennis doubles play for women were: Janine Johnson and Lisa Bloom, 4A; Melinda Ma, 3A and Suzanne Karjala, 3A.

Table tennis

Champions in the just-completed coed table tennis competition were: Larry and Judy Druyou, 4A; Ken Andelin and Rose Ford, 2A.

Table tennis doubles competition will begin Nov. 18 and an intramural swim meet will be held Dec. 2.

URGENT NEW YORK

WASH, D.C. $249

ROUND TRIP DEC. 22-JAN. 4

LIMITED SEATING

Oct. 29 is the last day to purchase. Fares go up Nov. 1.

DALLAS $199 CALIF. $170
 HOUSTON $205 DENVER $88

TRAVEL STATION

377-7577

835 N. 700 E., PROVO

— NEXT TO BYU —

Blacks admitted to golf association

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The South African Professional Golfer's Association admitted black players to its membership for the first time.

Nine black players were granted membership, said Jimmy Hemphill, the head of the 120-member Tournament Players Division of the SAPGA. They will now be able to automatically enter pro tournaments, where previously they had to play qualifying rounds. The nine are Vincent Tshabalala, Joe Dlamini, Richard Mogorane, Theb Mananya, Shadrack Molefe, Ismael Chowhury, Peter Matali, Diddy Naidoo and John Mashige.

Bob's Discount Auto Parts
 American and Foreign Parts
 8:30 a.m.-7 p.m.
 374-2222
 (next to Dee's) *****

Jane McLeod tells:

"I LOST 82 LBS."

with Nutri/System, nine pounds the first week!

 "I tried everything possible to lose weight, but nothing worked for very long until this program. The weight came off quickly and I was really encouraged. And with the prepackaged food, I didn't have to measure an ounce of this or that. Best of all, I had no hunger pangs or the temptation to cheat."

"NUTRI/SYSTEM, YOU ARE THE ANSWER!"

- No diet pills, no injections
- Professionally supervised
- No starvation or food decisions
- Wide choice of delicious Nutri/System meals
- No constant calorie-counting, mistake-proof food plan
- Nutri/System guarantee: Follow the Nutri/System Program and lose weight quickly, often up to a pound a day. Achieve your goal by the date specified, or pay no additional charges for Nutri/System services until you do.

CALL NOW FOR A FREE, NO-OBLIGATION CONSULT

Over 550 Centers Nationwide

$25 OFF

Come in to a Nutri/System center listed below for a free weight analysis and "ideal weight goal." This coupon entitles you to $25 OFF your Nutri/System program. Valid for new clients, for one customer only, in the uninterrupted time period following initial weight analysis. Offer expires Oct. 29, 1982.

Carillon Sq. East Shopping Ctr., 1300 S. Orem 226-2626

As details vary by their weight losses

FORUM OF STUDENT THOUGHT

"Are Computers Taking Over Our Jobs?"

Mark Mendenhall

Doctorate Student in Organizational Psychology

Thursday, October 28

10:00-11:00 a.m.

321 ELWC
 (Little Theater)

You have a Check in to see if won a fr tick
 More than one

Utes 24th consecutive victim

By GRANT SKABELUND
Staff Writer

Utah had notions of a big upset Tuesday night, but BYU's women spikers wiped the dreams away and whipped the Lady Utes for the Cougars' 24th-consecutive win of the season.

A tough Utah squad held its own against BYU in the first two stanzas, but the ninth-ranked Cougars topped the Lady Utes in three games 15-12, 17-15, 15-8.

BYU could have easily looked past the Utes to Friday's match with No. 1-ranked San Diego State, but the Cougars exhibited enough intensity to sweep the Lady Utes.

Serving was the key to the Cougars' 15-12 victory, and that was by design according to Cougar coach Elane Michaelis.

"I told the kids to take some risks with our serving," Michaelis said. "I told them to serve aggressively—some might go out—but to serve tough."

And serve tough is what the Cougars did, with junior hitter Meggie Ferreira leading the way. With the Cougars up 3-1 in the first game, the Cougars reeled off nine straight points with Ferreira keeping Utah out of its offense with her deep, hard serves.

Although Utah battled back, the deficit was too great, and BYU went to win the game.

Michaelis said the second game was critical to BYU's win. In a see-saw battle, the Lady Utes grabbed the momentum and a 14-9 lead behind the blocking of Kathy Reimers and Shauna Vrane Sonntag.

But with Lisa Monson serving, the Cougars forced several Utah mistakes and a Ferreira spike put the Cougars up 15-12.

Utah tied the score, but a quick set by Val de Poulard for a slam by Raelyn Hoglund, and an out-of-bounds hit by Sonntag gave the Cougars a tough come-from-behind victory.

Michaelis went to her bench in the final game, and Kim Harrington scored all of her six kills as the Cougars secured the match.

"I got played better than last time," Michaelis said referring to the Cougars' win over the Lady Utes in Salt Lake City. "Utah played well but we rose to the occasion."

"In the third game Utah did not have the same spirit as the first two games. They played really well in the first two games."

Michaelis said that the entire Cougar team served well. De Poulard led BYU with three service aces, and Hoglund had two of BYU's seven aces.

Ferreira led the Cougars with 10 kills, while Karin Knudsen added nine.

Ferreira, Hoglund and Michele Nekota had three defensive saves apiece for the Cougars.

University photo by Barbara Crownover
Utah's Madge Ferreira goes for a block in last night's sweep of the Utes. The Cougar's downed Utah and ran their consecutive streak to 24 games. The lady spikers take on No. 1 San Diego

Carlton wins 4th Young award

YORK (AP) — Steve Carlton, from the worst start of this season to win an unprecedented National League Cy Young award Tuesday.

Carlton, of the Philadelphia Phillies, the only pitcher in the major to win 20 games this year, the season with a 23-11 record and an earned run average of .37.

Carlton got off to an old start, losing his first four but he won four of his next once again, was on the form that made him the all-time 1st League and left-handed king.

Carlton's unique-leading 280 strikeouts gave him 3,494 for his only 74 shy of Walter Johnson's record of 3,538. Carlton gave little trouble breaking his next season, his 17th in the Phili-ps in received 112 points in bal-

y a special 24-member panel chosen by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Runner-up was Montreal Expos right-hander Steve Rogers, who received 29 points, followed by Fernando Valenzuela of Los Angeles, 25%; Bruce Sutter of St. Louis, 20; Jim Nettles, 18; and Tom Seaver of San Francisco, 4; Joaquin Andujar of St. Louis, and Gene Garber of Atlanta, 1 each, and Mario Soto of Cincinnati, one-half point.

Carlton received 20 first-place votes and was named runner-up on the other four ballots. He was the only pitcher named on all ballots. Sutter received two of the remaining first-place votes, and Rogers and Valenzuela received one each.

Each member of the panel, two writers from each NL city — voted for three pitchers, with five points for first place, three for second and one for third. One third-place vote was split between Valenzuela and Soto.

Only three other pitchers — Jim Palmer (1973-75), Tom Seaver (1969-73-75) and Sandy Koufax (1963-65-66) — have won the award three

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Harvey Kuenn, whose Milwaukee Brewers made it to the World Series after he took over the floundering team and told the players to have fun, will return next year as manager.

The Brewers announced at a news conference that the popular manager had signed a one-year contract to return in 1983. Terms were not announced.

"I wouldn't want it for any longer than that," Kuenn said. "I'm just looking at it as one year. After next year, we can look further. I guess I'm different than a lot of people. I wouldn't want to tie the club down for two years."

Kuenn became interim manager June 2, replacing Buck Rodgers, who was fired after the Brewers had lost 14 of 21 games and had fallen into a tie for fifth place in the American League East.

Kuenn's message for his team when he took over was: "Be loose. Have a laugh. Go out and play the game and have fun."

The club finished with a 72-43 record under Kuenn and led their division by 5 1/2 games at the end of August.

Under Rodgers, the Brewers were an unhappy team, but Kuenn infused a loose, tension-free atmosphere.

The Brewers lost the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games in the World Series, which finished last week.

Brewer management had been uncertain how Kuenn would react to the stress of managing since he'd had three previous operations in recent years. He had four coronary bypasses in 1976, surgery for kidney failure in 1977 and amputation of his right leg below the knee in 1980.

Kuenn said he remained in good health throughout the season.

"There was no doubt in my mind that Harvey should come back if Harvey wanted to come back, and Harvey's doctors said he could come back," General Manager Harry Dalton said. "That was my only concern. He did a fine job, not only on the field, but in working with the front office."

Season may be lost in battle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National Football League and its players are in a defensive battle with neither side showing signs of weakening.

"There is no reason for us to sit here and say, 'If we're little longer, everything is going to be all right,'" said Atlanta Falcon Hankin Smith, adding that the longer the drags on, the more likely the NFL season will be called off.

Orleans Saints player representative Russel Leiben says the striking players would give wage scale demands if the NFL management up with an acceptable alternative.

No alternative

we won't take it off the table until they come something," Exrleben said. "They don't but they won't give us an alternative.

Ed Garvey, executive director of the L. Players Association, talked by telephone Donlan, management's chief negotiator, the two groups return to the bargaining which was abandoned Saturday.

"Donlan asked, according to Jim Mil-

NFL Management Council's spokesman

"We met for 12 days in Maryland and there was no movement on the economic issues. So unless there's a change in your position, there's not much sense in getting together again," he said.

Later, Garvey said he felt the negotiations could resume by the end of this week.

But Chuck Sullivan, chairman of the Management Council's executive committee, said it was "very unrealistic" based on what (Garvey) continues to adhere to, there's no basis for negotiations right now. This isn't an argument as to how much. It's an argument as to what."

The strike has wiped out five regular-season weeks thus far, and coming weekend's games could be the last as well.

"The NFL has said that a 12-game schedule, including two makeup weekends, is the acceptable minimum. Again, the players disagree.

"We could play an extended season until February," said Dallas Cowboy wide receiver Butch Johnson. "We had a playoff game in 37-degree-below-zero temperature last year."

Exrleben said the union would consider any offer by management that covered all or the majority of a five-point plan drawn up by the players union in August.

z win
season test

TTANOOGA, AP — Adrian scored 23 points to lead the Johnnies to a go-ahead with 10 minutes remaining and minutes to lead the Utah 112-104 victory over Atlanta Hawks in basketball exhibition Sunday night.

REE
movie tickets!

Look in classified to if you're inner today.

one winner daily.

IS THIS ANY TIME TO THINK ABOUT ARMY ROTC?

Fall &

Winter Semester

It's the perfect time to make college a real learning experience. Well ROTC can add a valuable dimension to your college education. A dimension of leadership and management training. And that may make your degree worth more.

Plus, the opportunity to graduate with a commission and begin your future as an officer.

For more information contact your Professor of Military Science.

ARMY ROTC.
BE ALL YOU CAN BE.

Thousands of Scholarships
Are Offered Financial Assistance

A Great Future!!

MILITARY SCIENCE DEPT
320 WELLS ROTC BLDG
BYU, PROVO 84602

For more information:
MILITARY SCIENCE DEPT
320 WELLS ROTC BLDG
BYU, PROVO 84602

Phone: 801-378-3602

Entertainment

For entertainment information and calendar, call Tele-Tip, 378-7420, tape 176.

Shanghai entertainers

Performers prepare early

Universe photo by Jackie Nielsen
A member of the Shanghai Song and Dance team rehearses for the company's upcoming concert to be presented today at 8 p.m. in the Marriott Center. The company was one of 23 artistic groups from different countries at the grand opening festivities of Walt Disney World's EPCOT Center last weekend.

Utah dance company to perform in China

The People's Republic of China has invited the Kirie-Woodbury Dance Company, the first American modern dance company to ever perform and tour in China, said Melody Bello, dance company manager.

The dance company will leave May 4 and will spend three weeks touring and visiting the Chinese people. Bello said. Completing the tour, the group will visit Hong Kong for two days.

The modern dance company will present eight performances in five cities in China, including Beijing, Nanjing, Shanghai, Gulin and Guangzhou.

The Kirie-Woodbury Dance Company will meet with the famed Peking Ballet and the Shanghai Song and Dance Company, which will perform O'Neill recouping from shot wound

BEDFORD, N.Y. (AP) — Actress Jennifer O'Neill, accidentally shot in the abdomen as she performed a revolver, may have to leave the hospital within a week to days.

The 34-year-old actress, best known for her 1971 role in "Summer of '42," was found with a gunshot wound to the abdomen after she called police for help Friday night from her 22-room Bedford Hills mansion.

Police said O'Neill, a gun-control advocate, fired the gun accidentally while trying to find out if it was loaded.

"As far as we're concerned, the matter is closed," Lt. Ed Wykstra said Monday.

today in the Marriott Center at BYU. The group will also have a cultural exchange with Chinese children during their visit, Bello said.

The company's ultimate goal, Bello said, is to bring the Peking Ballet to America, which has never before performed in the United States. It hopes to bring this about through its performances.

Ririe-Woodbury Dance Company is tentatively planning an extended tour commencing after their China tour. Bello said. The group plans to visit Australia, New Zealand and Hong Kong during the tour.

The group has toured one-third of the artist education residencies in the United States, Bello said. It has visited various foreign countries, including Yugoslavia, South Africa and Canada.

Music at midday to begin at noon

Music at Midday, sponsored by the music department, will be in the Madsen Recital Hall HFAC today at 12:30 p.m.

According to Dr. Jacob Bos, a professor of music, the program will be a piano and organ recital.

Featured on the program are Marcus Skousen Johnson and James Sorenson on the piano.

Kim Croft will perform on the organ.

Music at Midday is an ongoing program conducted every Wednesday.

By LORI DESPAIN
Staff Writer

Young people in China who love to dance can eventually become members of the Shanghai Song and Dance team, according to Shu Zhang, a ranking official of the People's Republic of China.

Zhang said boys and girls with a love for dance receive preliminary dance training in the primary and secondary schools.

A selecting committee from the Shanghai School of Dance goes to the different schools, judging the dancers on dance technique, facial expression and physical appearance while performing on stage, he said.

After they are accepted into the school, the dancers receive professional training.

"This is a professional performing art company," Zhang said.

Members of the company are from Shanghai, China, with one member from Peking. The members range in age from 19 to 36, said Jai Ming Chen, a former accompanist for the company.

Chen, from Shanghai, is studying music composition and piano at BYU.

Following six years of technical training, dancers graduate from the dance school and become members of the company, Chen said.

The company practices at least four hours daily, devoting two hours to exercise and two hours to the program, Chen said.

"They usually dance Chinese ballet," Chen said. Zhang said the group performs for different people during tours of China. More than 200 performers — including musicians, technicians and dancers — are in the group.

Zhang said some members of the company become teachers and others become photographers.

The company came to the United States at the invitation of BYU, Zhang said.

The group, representing China, was one of 23 artistic groups from different countries at the grand opening festivities of Walt Disney World's EPCOT center last weekend, he added.

"Different countries write to China," Zhang said. The different countries and China participate in what he calls a "cultural-exchange program." Performing groups from one country tour China, then host the Chinese group.

The company will perform today at 8 p.m. in the Marriott Center. Tickets are available at the HFAC music ticket office.

Another performance is scheduled for Friday night in the Capitol Theater in Salt Lake City.

Following performances in Utah, the company will tour South America, Zhang said.

Renowned guitarist to join Utah Symphony on Friday

The Utah Symphony will present a second Cafe Rose concert on Friday in the Salt Palace Assembly Room in Salt Lake City.

Charles Ketcham will conduct the concert, which will be his first public performance before an adult audience. Ketcham joined the Utah Symphony as associate conductor in September.

Noted guitarist and big band leader Alvino Rey will perform as guest soloist.

The symphony will perform Johann Strauss Jr.'s Overture to "Die Fledermaus," a symphonic suite titled "My Fair Lady" by Lermer and Loewe, Joplin's "The Entertainer" and "Sinfonia India" by Chavez.

Rey will join the orchestra to play a variety of selections, many of which he popularized during his career. On Spanish guitar, he will perform his own arrangement of "Spanish Melody," Rodgers' "Love and Light of the Bumblebee" by Rimsky-Korsakoff.

To conclude the concert he will take up the banjo for Ray Henderson's "Alabama Bound," "Maple Leaf Rag" by Joplin, Bowman's "Twelfth Street Rag," "Dueling Banjos" by Dillard, Payne and Webb, Rossini's "William Tell Overture" and his own "Americana Pops."

Called the "father of the pedal steel guitar," as a symphony orchestra soloist in 1979, he has performed with orchestras in Washington, Texas, Maryland and California. He recently returned from a cross-country big band tour for Columbia Artists. He resides in Salt Lake City.

Rey has also performed to a television audience with the King Family.

Since his debut with the Utah Symphony orchestra in 1979, he has performed with orchestras in Washington, Texas, Maryland and California. He recently returned from a cross-country big band tour for Columbia Artists. He resides in Salt Lake City.

Tickets for the concert are now on sale at the Utah Symphony box office in Salt Lake City.

LADIES NIGHT

at Classic Skating

THURSDAY

7:30 p.m.

BYU COEDS FREE!

When accompanied by paid admission.

BYU I.D. required.

Classic Skating

250 S. State, Orem 224-4197

New Stallone ro boxing promoter

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sylvester Stallone,

who plays the film as

Rocky Balboa, is entering the real-life boxing business as a promoter

with a show next Saturday night at Las Vegas.

Stallone is to present

a cable-television show with the promotional

name Tiger Eye Produc-

"There is a saying:

"Each day one must face life with the eye of a tiger," says Stallone, explaining the name Tiger

Eye.

"Well, there is an old saying: 'In the jungle, an unwar-ied tiger can be killed,

but a boxing even a cau-sious promoter can be figuratively eaten up alive."

Hold the laughter, you cynics.

Sylvester Stallone's trip into boxing is hardly an ego trip. How many people in boxing are better known? Stallone, through Balboa, the cel-lent heavyweight champion of the world, must be a fighter in the matrix of many.

"I want to make club events," he says. "I want to add a different kind of concept to promotion — make a fight like a show, develop an emotional interest in what's happening, not a mechanical interest."

"I'm interested in this on a grassroots level," Stallone says. "I want to see a fighter from the bottom up."

"I don't have anyone on anyone, I want to see them alone."

"I want to see them alone."

annual Halloween spooks

Ghosts haunt Utah castles

State Hospital's Haunted Castle is one of many haunted houses throughout Salt Lake and counties. The houses will be open from now until Halloween, Oct. 31. Characters to bar include Dracula, Frankenstein and unknown creatures in one of the houses "haunted ears."

Auditions for Opryland to begin Nov. 17 at Y

By LONI MANNING
Staff Writer

than 350 singers, dancers and musicians as stage managers and other technicians are for Opryland U.S.A.'s 1983 season of 14 for this year's productions will be continuing in nearly 40 locations across the country, the being at BYU on Nov. 17 from 10 a.m. to 4:29 KMH. Auditions will be available only at the audition auditions are looking for performers with a pleasing personality and appearance.

Two selections

ers should be prepared to sing two selections choice that will display their versatility as a mer. They should not use original music. It is intended that singers bring an accompanist, er, a piano will be provided, record player and a player will be provided. All music must be proper key.

ers should choose the dance style they do and perform a routine no more than one minute each.

strumentalists, including piano, brass, woodwind and string players, will be asked to sight read and should be ready to present one minute of musical material in addition to the sight reading. Wind players will be asked to demonstrate double-tongue and a band presentation should be within minutes. Particular interest will be given to top 40 groups, bluegrass ensembles, and ventriloquists. Other unusual talents will also be considered.

Piano audition

ers auditioning should also be qualified con- s, prepared to submit references and resumes. A piano audition will also be required stage managers, audio engineers, technicians, stagehands, follow spot operators and costume dressers are requested.

ents interested in these positions should apply to Opryland. Stagehands, prop managers and will be interviewed at the audition, a will fill out an application and have their forwarded to Opryland's technical director. Performers may be asked to stay or to come the following day. Dance combinations for will be provided by the Opryland choreog-suggested that singers who are called back additional vocal material prepared. In- dentists will not be called back. Singers called will be asked to do some dance movements on either by phone or letter in March. All ants must be at least 16 years old to work for U.S.A.

land, U.S.A., located in Nashville, Tenn., is the world's leading music center. Rehearsals are in Nashville, and most shows will be on-air. The spring-summer "red cast" be-

Hispanic group files action protesting media prejudice

SHIRLEY (AP) — A leading Hispanic

ation filed a discrimination complaint last against the nation's top television networks, studios and advertising agencies. Sident Tony Bonilla of the League of United American Citizens said the move is a class on behalf of the nation's Hispanic Americans.

of news coverage of Hispanics and failure to give a positive manner gives Americans a dis- picture of the Hispanic community, Bonilla said.

and the complaint by the 100,000-member is part of "an extensive, comprehensive effort by Hispanics to examine, identify and the benign neglect" of their community by media.

complaint, filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, asks that agency to investigate alleged under-employment of Hispanics gins rehearsals in mid-February and starts per- forming in March.

The summer "purple cast" begins rehearsing late in May and starts performing in June. Rehearsals for the summer cast are full time, weekdays and weekends, including some Sundays.

Rehearsal pay is on an hourly rate. Weekly pay is based on six days a week. Returning employees receive a 10 percent pay advantage. Weekly pay ranges from $200 to more than $400 according to position.

Eight BYU students were auditioned and chosen for the 1982 Opryland, U.S.A. cast of performers. According to Young Ambassadors director, Randy Buelke, Opryland selected more performers and musicians from BYU than from any other one school.

Included in the group of BYU students selected last year were Young Ambassadors Scott Pickard, Wes Meyers, Jay Wimmer, Wende Truman and Nolan Goodwin. Composition major and former Synthesis member Jerry Williams, along with theater majors Terry Phillips and Eddy Schumacher were also chosen.

Pickard, Schumacher, Truman, and Goodwin performed in the indoor show, "Here America Singing," while Wimmer performed in the "Me And My Gal" gay nineties show.

Wimmer and Meyers are working as part of the fall "purple cast" and will be completing their 1982 Opryland performances in November.

According to Goodwin, there are many opportunities in Nashville, in addition to Opryland, for performers to audition for recording, TV and other performing arts.

While in Nashville, Goodwin was asked to audition for three major films, including "The Dukes of Hazard" and a film about the life story of country singer Hank Williams, Jr.

Some Opryland performers were able to get involved in the Nashville Network show "Opryland On Stage." BYU students Truman and Schumacher were involved in this production.

The Opryland live show is performed seven to 20 casts; each show being performed seven to eight times a day.

More than 2 million visitors will see this year's performances.

According to Goodwin, there are also many opportunities for missionary work in the association with other non-member performers.

"While there, the other BYU students and myself were able to place 33 copies of the Book of Mormon with other performers," Goodwin said.

He is currently working as a technical director for Opryland, U.S.A., to be expected to work last, "because it is a very professional atmosphere." However, Goodwin added, "There isn't a better atmosphere for LDS performers than the good, wholesome, family oriented entertainment of Opryland, U.S.A."

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

Ghosts, goblins, vampires and monsters are making an annual Halloween appearance in haunted houses throughout Salt Lake and Utah Counties.

The devil's cave, the dark unknown, the torture chamber and the moat are just four of the rooms at the Utah State Hospital's Haunted Castle, according to Janina Chilton, public relations director.

Chilton said there are 13 rooms in the house which will resemble a haunted castle.

Recreation funds

"All the work was produced by patients and staff at the hospital. Proceeds go to unit recreation funds," Chilton said.

The house, located at 1800 E. Center, is open Monday through Thursday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and also on Friday and Saturday from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Visitors to the Haunted Old Mill in Salt Lake City will meet Dracula, Natasha the Vampire and the Swamp Monster.

This haunted house contains 16 rooms with various mazes throughout the tour.

The mill is located at 6900 S. Big Cottonwood Canyon Road and is sponsored by the Utah Arthritis Foundation, Diabetes Association and Medic Alert Foundation.

Haunted Mill

The Haunted Old Mill opened Oct. 1 and will remain open through Saturday. Hours are 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Also in Salt Lake City is the Haunted House, located at 8200 S. State. Some of the 26 rooms include Frankenstein's lab, haunted sewer, torture room and a wax museum. The house is 31 square feet.

The Haunted House is sponsored by KRSP radio and the March of Dimes. It opened Oct. 4 and will continue through Saturday. Hours are 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

KBYU-TV to air 2 specials

"The Mark Russell Comedy Special" will air Thursday at 7:30 p.m. on KBYU-TV.

With piano and pixie grin, Russell will use his wit and comic timing to turn the day's worries into some news fuel for laughter.

On Saturday, KBYU-TV

will air "Great Performances: The Charterhouse of Parma" at 8 p.m. The presentation stars Marthe Keller as Gina, Countess Pieterman and Andrea Occhipinti as her nephew, Fabrice del Dongo.

The story begins in 1783 as Napoleon Bonaparte is leading his revolutionary army into Milan, Italy. The arrival of the French provokes tremendous societal changes that eventually lead to the birth of modern Italy in 1861. It is amidst this turbulent climate that Fabrice del Dongo, a young man whose father, the Marquis del Dongo, a Milan aristocrat, is devoted to the Austrians, but his Aunt Gina is won over by the new Napoleonic ideas and raises him in the Napoleonic spirit.

At the time of the "Hundred Days," when Napoleon escaped from Elba, Fabrice flees his father's castle in Milan in an attempt to join the Emperor Napoleon, and finds himself on the battlefield of Waterloo where he soon discovers the harsh realities of war.

More than 2 million visitors will see this year's performances.

According to Goodwin, there are also many opportunities for missionary work in the association with other non-member performers.

"While there, the other BYU students and myself were able to place 33 copies of the Book of Mormon with other performers," Goodwin said.

He is currently working as a technical director for Opryland, U.S.A., to be expected to work last, "because it is a very professional atmosphere." However, Goodwin added, "There isn't a better atmosphere for LDS performers than the good, wholesome, family oriented entertainment of Opryland, U.S.A."

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

ABC spokesman Jeff Tolvin and NBC spokesman M.S. Rukersey Jr. said their networks had not seen the suit and would not comment on it.

Bonilla charged that of 3,546 characters portrayed on network television last year, only 37 were Hispanics, or about one percent. According to the 1980 census, there are about 14.6 million Hispanics in the United States, or 6.4 percent of the population.

Television news, Bonilla said, reports only on farm workers or illegal aliens, without considering other aspects of the Hispanic community.

And he charged that Hispanics have no one to plead their case.

by the networks, studios and agencies.

Named in the complaint were ABC, NBC, CBS, Paramount, Universal, Mary Tyler Moore Productions, Norman Lear's Embassy Productions and the advertising agencies Ogilvy & Mather, Young & Rubicam and J. Walter Thompson.

The Classified Marketplace

"AD" IT UP! Open: Mon.-Fri. 8:30-4:30 5th Floor ELWC Ph. 378-2897

BUY • SELL • TRADE • SAVE!

CLASSIFIED AD POLICY

3-line minimum.

Deadline for regular Classified Ads: 11:00 a.m. 1 day prior to publication.

Deadline for Classified Display: 4:00 p.m. 3 days prior to publication.

Every effort will be made to protect our readers from deception, but no guarantee is given. The Universe does not approve of any or by any means of the University or the University.

Read your ad carefully before placing it. Due to mechanical operation, we cannot accept ads or cancel an ad until it has appeared on the page.

Advertisements are expected to check the first insertion. In event of error, make a claim within the first day ads run wrong. We cannot be responsible for any errors in the first day. If no errors or adjustments will be made after that date.

Cash Rates — 3-line minimum. Fall & Winter rates: 1 day, $1.00; 3 lines 3.00; 3 day, 3 lines 5.40; 4 day, 3 lines 6.48; 4 day, 4 lines 6.48; 5 day, 3 lines 6.48; 10 day, 3 lines 12.30.

Above rates subject to $1.00 service charge for credit.

1—Personals

SPEND a little, make a lot with Classified ads! Call 378-2897 today.

ELECTROLYSIS: Perm. removal of unwanted hair of face & body. Ladies only. 378-6401. 378-6401 for apt.

"BARGAIN PRINTER": Photo prints, post cards, Columbia Ltr., won't be undercut. Text, L.D.S., rare, paperbacks, some $2.00. 378-5960.

LIVE ORGAN MUSIC: Weddings or special party. Call Jim, 378-0410.

TRADE: Your paperbacks at book store. Hrs. 10-6. M-Sat. 377-9518.

DANCEWEAR: Shoes, tights, belt, leotards. DANCE SHOPPE, Carrollton Square, 224-4213.

NEED A NEW WARDROBE? Expert tailoring men & women 30 yrs. exp. 378-2516.

Lose that unwanted cellulite. Do it yourself body wrap. Safe & money back guarantee. It works! Call 378-2516.

BUY & SELL used books. 388 N. 400 E. # 1. 378-4499.

CASH LOANS on items of any value including appl. A.A. Trading & Pawn, 402 W. Center St., 378-2516.

TOM T. & REBECCA: You two fabulous birds are invited to spend a fabulous time in the town of Provo this fall. Call Nov. 13, Oh wow! Tom, call C.M., 378-9583; Rebec, call K.T., 377-4262.

HALLOWEEN SPECIAL a unique source for all your needs, any occasion. Halloween, birthday, anniversary, get well, etc. Call 378-7171. Balloon Flair, 756-0334.

Float Him An Invitation BEAUTIFUL BOUQUETS blue bag balloons 377-4711.

Cakes

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING CAKES AND CAKES for all occasions. Delicious. Reas. prices. Robin, 224-7371 after 6pm.

Christmas Cards

CHRISTMAS CARDS 25% OFF. STYLART personalized cards. Elegantly designed, plain or with photo. 375-6269.

Cosmetics

MARY KAY COSMETICS 375-5121.

$5 DOLLAR MAKEUP DESIGN: Color Analysis by Est-Cos. & Vogy's lingerie. Great Christmas gifts! 375-2847.

SPEND a little, make a lot with Classified ads! Call 378-2897 today.

Entertainment

WESTERN FUN: Square Dance, Tico, 29 yrs. teaching at BYU. Earl A. Beck, 378-2516.

PRO SQUARE dance calling for Western parties. Also entertainment for all occasions. Don 378-2516.

THE FIRST PERSON WITH THE INITIALS F. (first & last) will win a FREE Mann Theater ticket for the Halloween midnight movie.

The Universe does not approve of any or by any means of the University or the University.

CLASSIFIED AD DIRECTORY

PERSONALS

Lost & Found

Employment & Training

Special Notices

Insurance Agencies

Business Services

Motors Helper

Sales Help Wanted

Pets

Contracts for Sale

Rooms for Rent

Business for Rent

Houses for Rent

Single's House Rentals

Business for Sale

3 Income Properties

Lots & Acreage

Tool & Tool

Business Opprt.

Mountain Property

Business for Sale

Farm & Ranches

Food & Garden Produce

Business for Rent

Furniture

Business Photo Equip.

Musical Instruments

Business for Sale

TV & Stereo

Sports Goods

Business for Sale

Mobile Homes

Business for Sale

Business for Rent

-e. Trans.

IRVING BOUND FOR TRAVEL, TKS Travel Services offers travel. For info, call 377-6551

3 Cars

SUV newly over gas, 4 door, 4 cyl., 300 hp, 1980, trade or $37,695WASH 200 W. 400 S.
8-8832INTO A speed, response, good tires, high $37,3243Lair, low miles of 78
MTHATCABA terms or B.O. 377-K WILDCAT 4 dr. transmission. $500JASHER WGC 321
st. New rebuilt entire. $1600 756JONDA CIVIC 1980, 4 door, 1600
$375-2827FAIRMONT 4 door,
PS/PW. Good cond.
$3825JENGEN SUPER
2. Red. 1971. Nice asking $1900. Call 8-392-1000E-392 VW BEETLE cond., body needs
sat for restoration.
over $1000. Call 224-UN SENTRA. Brand new. $500. Call for info. 379-4000I MUST BEAST
call 244-6029

Attitude toward blacks changing

Continued from page 1

Where we are today, Cobe believes, is at a crossroads. He said: "We don't need social programs now to pacify us — it has got to be an attitude change among the black people. The only way out is up, and we have got to remember that."

Black people achieving their own goals is the only way for real equality to exist, agrees Samuel G. Dargan, a specialist in the 259 Army Reserve Unit in Provo, who is from Allendale, S.C., and a freshman at BYU majoring in computer science. Dargan said: "On a small scale, black people must achieve their goals they set for themselves. It has got to be through a positive attitude and hard work that blacks progress before we achieve anything."

Joining the military was a way of going to college for Dargan. While stationed in Germany, he became a member of the LDS Church and was introduced to BYU.

He said he has felt no prejudice at BYU, and jokingly adds, "You could say I am getting used to being one of the black people."

Dargan, however, requested the same pie every black student interviewed asked for to be treated as any other student. "Don't say 'Hey, brother,' say 'Hi,' if that's what you would normally say. Just treat me as you would want to be treated and then we really will have equality," Dargan concluded.

Foreign students

For a small, select group of black students on the BYU campus, prejudice is a word they have never lived with.

The 26 black students who came to the Y from Nigeria, Liberia and a few other African countries, cannot understand why Americans, white Americans have experienced. They also cannot understand the prejudice they too must face at BYU.

"The black American's environment is completely different than the one I grew up in," said Emma-nel Adelepe, a graduate student in hospital administration from Ogbomoso, Nigeria. "Whites have always been our friends and when they come to our country we want to be their hosts. We welcome them with open arms."

Much of the prejudice that exists in America is due to the environment black Americans grow up in, Adelepe said. "The environment forces blacks to behave the way they do. We are not the same. They have been discriminated against because we are the known whites to be our friends."

In 1975, Adelepe came from Nigeria to Provo and enrolled in the Utah Technical College. Then, in order to play soccer on the BYU soccer team, he transferred to BYU. Four years later, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in business management.

During his four years at BYU, Adelepe said he felt discriminated against by the BYU students. "Students try to avoid you and do not want to sit by you in class," he said. "Often, when the instructor asks a question, they won't work on projects, it is difficult to find a partner."

Often the students in his classes think he wants to be left alone because of his quiet attitude, Adelepe said. He explained that in Africa students are accustomed to being extremely quiet and not socializing in the classroom. "For this reason, students may think we are unfriendly, but we do not mean to be," he added.

Despite these racial feelings, Adelepe said he loves America and would like to heed the advice of his teacher to "work hard."

"I like the country, I like the country right here. I will not change my opinion because of a few ignorant students. I wish I were American — I love this country," he said.

Other black African students did not share Adelepe's attitude and a few were bitter towards the discrimination they have received at BYU. Because these students said they no longer cared to be involved, they would not allow The Daily Universe to print their comments.

One student from Nigeria, who is a senior majoring in business, said feelings of discrimination are sometimes confused with feelings of disparity —

Contest posters ready for display

A second printing of a series of anti-alcoholism posters is now ready for distribution to Indian tribes across the nation by BYU American Indian Services.

Posters were created during a national Indian poster contest sponsored by A.I.S. Representing tribes, Indian communities and halfway houses, artists of various ages submitted drawings.

"Response to the first edition of the posters was excellent," said Howard Rainer, assistant director of A.I.S. "Posters are already hanging in tribal halls, community centers, schools, halfway houses and urban Indian centers."

Honors Program class schedules

G.E. ESL Category 1 award — The winter Honors class schedule —

ISAT, GMAT preparation class. Planning on taking the Law School Admissions Test or the Graduate Record Exam? Take a condensed course in preparation.

John B. Harris will be Conferences and Workshops. Ext. 4784. For information, call 377-6551.

Student nurses and future students — Four clinical experiences will be offered this fall.

Post-movie discussion — Today from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. in 505

Auditions — The Talent and Entertainment Directorate is holding an open casting call for the 1983-84 SWFT.

Player registration — There is still time to register to play. You can register in person today and Thursday from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. in 505

ELWC — The ELWC Student Association will sponsor a social event for foreign students to introduce them to their American host families. Call 377-6551 for information.

Arts Ball competitions

ding 1982 Mormon Arts and film. Applications available 429

the pamphlet "The Priority," a pamphlet available at the University Honors

Orientation. Dr. Steven

professor emeritus of the College of Law, will be on the panel.

What do you think about the financing in tomorrow's law school?

John B. Harris, executive editor of the Fort

Collins, will be on the panel.

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

11:30 a.m. in 321 ELWC?

What are the

chances today at

Prices effective through November 2, 1982.

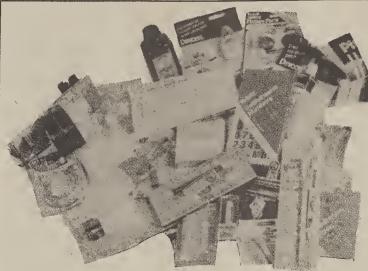

MORMON EXPERIENCE

A History of the Latter-day Saints
LEONARD J. ARRINGTON & DAISY BROWN

4.75

Church Book feature of the week: THE MORMON EXPERIENCE, by Leonard J. Arrington, reg. 5.95, available in the General Book department.

SMALL CHANGE SALE

Bring in your nickels, dimes and quarters for some super savings on a great variety of items. Many items have been reduced as much as 50%! Look for the signs in the School Supplies department.

.25 and 1.00

18x24 Impact prints, regularly 4.95, now 1.00. Poster size Assembly Hall, reg. 6.95, now .25. Charles Russell "Western Art Prints", reg. 4.00, now 1.00. Poster size "Christ in Gethsemane", reg. 4.00 & 5.00, now 1.00. Available in the Art department.

10% off

Pre-season ski parka sale on any parka in the Sport's department.

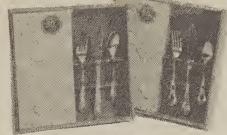

18.95

Converse All Star sport shoe — so versatile that you can wear it everyday! See our entire shoe selection downstairs in the Sports department.

8.99 and 4.99

Special group of Dee Cee Men's casual slacks, reg. 15.95, now on sale for 8.99. Turtle neck shirts in assorted colors, reg. 11.00, now on sale for 4.99 in the Men's Shop.

20% off

Assorted styles of Stainless steel flatware. Tamara and Elegance reg. 44.00, now 35.00. Portrait and Duet reg. 55.00, now 44.00. Royal and Bamboo reg. 38.00, now 30.00. See these patterns in the Gift department.

29.95

reg. 38.15. Jason Empire 7 x 35 Binoculars. Available at the Photo Counter.

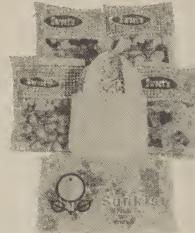

89.95 and 239.95

Panasonic RQ-J9 Mini stereo player reg. 89.95, now 69.95. Panasonic RX-5250 FM-AM Stereo Radio cassette recorder, reg. 289.95, now 239.95. Available downstairs in the Music department.

1.89

reg. 2.39. Silkience Self-adjusting Conditioner, the conditioner that conditions only where your hair needs it. (7 oz. size)

You'll find an excellent selection of Halloween goodies for parties and little Trick-or-Treaters in the Candy department of the Bookstore. You'll also find an assortment of pumpkins for Jack-o-lanterns at varied prices.

RENTALS

Get the picture with photo equipment from our Rental Shop. We have everything from 35mm cameras and 8mm movie cameras, to flashes, extra lenses and tripods. We're located downstairs in the Sports department.

We accept Mastercharge and Visa —

byu bookstore

Free 30 minute parking is available in lot #3, directly north of ELWC.